

Residential Recycling Event

Saturday, September 14, 2019
9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Centennial Fields
39903 SE Park Street
Snoqualmie, WA 98065

This program is only for residential household materials from King County residents, not for commercial or non-profit agencies. All service providers at the event have the right to refuse any material they deem unacceptable.

Services Providers On-Site

All Battery Sales and Service
Emerald Services/Clean Harbors
L&S Tire Company
Northwest Center
Total Reclaim
Waste Management

Sponsors

Hazardous Waste Management Program
King County Solid Waste
City of Snoqualmie

Questions?

Don Harris, City of Snoqualmie
dharris@ci.snoqualmie.wa.us
425-831-4919

Hazardous Waste Information

Hazardous materials are not accepted at this event.
Please take them to a Hazardous Wastemobile or the Factoria Household
Hazardous Waste drop-off site at 13800 SE 32nd St, Bellevue bit.ly/KCHazardousWaste

* SEE REVERSE SIDE FOR MORE INFO*

ITEM	ACCEPTED	NOT ACCEPTED	NOTES
SCRAP METAL, APPLIANCES	Barbecues, microwaves, cast iron sinks and tubs, dishwashers, lawnmowers, stoves, hot water heaters, washers and dryers	No cars, trailers, greasy metal. No propane or gaseous cylinder tanks. No windows or glass,	Please drain all liquids, (gas, oil, etc.) and remove any plastic or rubber from metal.
REFRIGERATORS, FREEZERS, AIR CONDITIONERS	Household refrigerators and freezers, household air conditioners	No commercial appliances or automobile air conditioning units.	This is a residential event only.
FLUORESCENT BULBS/TUBES	Fluorescent bulbs or tubes	No lighting fixtures or broken tubes.	Double bag please. If broken, take to Hazardous Wastemobile. (hazwastehelp.org)
ELECTRONICS	Computers, monitors, laptops, keyboards, mice, scanners, printers, stereos, TVs, CD/DVD players, VCRs, phones, fax machines, power supplies	No commercial equipment. No large copiers. This is a residential event.	E-Cycle WA is a program that provides free recycling of computers, monitors, laptops and TVs. More Info: 1-800-RECYCLE or www.ecology.wa.gov .
YARD WASTE	Grass, leaves, weeds, branches up to 3 inches diameter and 3 feet long	Large branches, sod, dirt, rocks, wood stumps, manure, plastic bags.	No trash or construction debris. Unloading into container is by hand - no powered equipment or hand tools will be provided. No toilets.
PETROLEUM PRODUCTS	Motor oil, gasoline, diesel fuel, 2-cycle mix, transmission and brake fluid, kerosene, antifreeze and oil filters.	No unmarked or mixed liquids. Containers must be properly sealed.	Do not mix liquids together. Bring contents in reusable containers. Containers will be given back to owner once emptied.
TIRES	On- or off-rim light truck, car and motorcycle tires	No commercial vehicle tires. This is a residential event.	Biased, steel-belted and studded tires accepted.
BATTERIES	Car, truck, marine lead acid batteries; household batteries both alkaline, rechargeable & button	This is a residential event only.	Pre-sort large quantities. Small alkaline quantities can be recycled at Snoqualmie City Hall.
CLOTHING & HOUSEHOLD ITEMS	Reusable clothing, shoes, bedding, pots, books, toys, and small appliances that work	No broken, torn, stained, or wet items. No furniture, carpet or mattresses.	Northwest Center staff has the right to refuse items if deemed unusable, unsafe, or damaged.

NOT ACCEPTED:

- Latex paint is not accepted; dry it out and put it in regular garbage containers.
- Oil-based paint, pesticides, or household chemicals should be taken to a Hazardous Wastemobile or the Factoria Household Hazardous Waste drop-off site at 13800 SE 32nd St, Bellevue. (Info: bit.ly/KCHazardousWaste)
- No packing peanuts, planter pots, or plastic play equipment.
- This is a residential (not commercial) event open to all King County residents.