

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Emergency Management is a vital public service; and

WHEREAS, “National Preparedness Month” creates an opportunity for every resident of the City of Snoqualmie to prepare for their homes, businesses, and communities for any type of emergency including natural and manmade disasters; and

WHEREAS, investing in the preparedness of ourselves, families, businesses, and communities can reduce fatalities and economic devastation in our communities and in our nation; and

WHEREAS, Emergency Preparedness is the responsibility of every resident in the City of Snoqualmie, and all residents are urged to make preparedness a priority and work together as a team, to ensure that individuals, families, and communities are prepared for disasters; and

WHEREAS, building an Emergency Preparedness kit and plan will protect and prepare community members for disasters, and create a legacy for you and your family.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Katherine Ross, Mayor of the City of Snoqualmie, Washington, do hereby proclaim September 2023, as in the City of Snoqualmie reminding the community that at any moment a disaster could strike and recommending the residents and business develop an Emergency Management plan that creates a legacy for you and your family.
