

THE ROSS REPORT

Monthly News from Mayor Katherine Ross

MAY 2025

Mayors Meet Up

Mayor Ross joined North Bend Mayor Mary Miller and Sound Cities Assoc. Executive Director Robert Feldstein for collaboration and coffee at Fall City's Aroma Coffee. These regular meetings keep the mayors connected and working together on opportunities and challenges facing our communities.

Challenge Races Fun

On your mark, get set, GO! Mayor Ross supported the Rotary Club's annual gravity car races on Snoqualmie Ridge where some amazing young residents got the chance to experience the thrill of a downtown hill race. It was great fun for all who attended.

Celebrating Hurley Media and Reclaim

Mayor Ross, Councilmembers Christensen, Cotton, Wotton, SnoValley Chamber, and many others officially welcomed the Hurley Media Group to its new home in the Snoqualmie Ridge Business Park, along with Reclaim's new community service center in downtown Snoqualmie. Thank you for your commitment to serving and strengthening the Snoqualmie community!

Mama's Hands and SV Food Bank Tours

The Mayor visited and toured two non-profits making a real difference in the Valley: Mama's Hands and the Snoqualmie Valley Food Bank. Both organizations provide vital resources and services to those needing food and shelter. [Photo: Mayor Ross with Mama's Hands Executive Director, Star Lalario.]
