

THE ROSS REPORT

Monthly News from Mayor Katherine Ross

Aug. 2025

20th Boeing Classic

Mayor Ross was honored to welcome golfers, fans, and residents to the 20th Boeing Classic PGA Champions Tour event, an annual tradition that has brought thousands to Snoqualmie for two decades. She also encouraged visitors to explore our local shops and restaurants while enjoying all our city and Valley have to offer. The weekend featured sunny skies, a thrilling jet flyover, and great golf. Congratulations to Steve Allan, who took home the 2025 trophy.

Snoqualmie Days Success

Thank you to the hundreds of community members who attended Snoqualmie Days to celebrate our town's history and heritage. The parade is always a summer highlight for Mayor Ross.

Snoqualmie Valley Health Breaks Ground

Mayor Ross and other elected officials, joined Snoqualmie Valley Health leaders for a milestone groundbreaking ceremony of SVH's new building called The HUB. The 80,000 sq. ft. facility, located on parcels adjacent to Snoqualmie Valley Hospital, will provide additional space to expand healthcare services, add a pharmacy, restaurant, fitness gym, and other amenities to better serve the needs of Snoqualmie Valley residents.

Sound Cities Association Meets with Congresswoman DelBene

Mayor Ross joined elected representatives from across the region for Sound Cities Association Luncheon, which provided an opportunity to engage directly with Congresswoman Suzan DelBene. These partnerships between local, regional, and federal leaders are essential to ensuring our communities continue to succeed.
